THE BOODLERS ALARMED.

The Supreme Court of California declined to pass upon any agreed case reviewing the action of Judge Wallace of San Francisco in impaneling the Grand Jury, and covering the points passed upon by Judge Murphy, in dismissing Richard Chute, held for contempt for refusing to obey a subpoena issued by the Grand Jury. Justice Beatty of the Supreme Court said he understood there were questions involved in which the public might be interested, but the person under indictment might apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of prohibition. The Court decided that the case brought before it presented no points in controversy that it could take up and the writ was dismissed. This course was construed by the Attorney General as virtually establishing the legality of the Grand Jury.

As the Grand Jury has proceeded with business and is sustained by public opinion the corruptionists are alarmed, and it is probable that the population of San Francisco will be considerably decreased while the jury remains in session. A witness who has nothing to conceal has nothing to fear from a grand jury. If Chute had not been implicated in political knavery he would not have questioned the legality of the Grand Jury, and if Judge Murphy was disposed to purify politics in San Francisco and expose the methods of the bosses in running the City Government and State Legislature, he would not release Chute from merited punishment for refusing to obey the order of Judge Wallace's Court.

THE BOARD OF ASSESSORS UNANIMOUS.

The JOURNAL is in receipt of a communication from O. H. Gray, Secretary of State, and a member of the Board of Assessors and Equalization, in which he says the JOURNAL did every member of the Board an injustice by giving publicity to the rumor that a difference of opinion existed among its members regarding the assessment of property. He says: "No member of the Board will shirk or attempt to shirk full responsibility for any act in this connection, and there is no possible data for the conclusion that the Board is divided, as on each and every vote yet taken, save one, the Board has been unanimous, and in the exceptional instance, there was but one dissenting voice from the opinion of the majority."

It is greatly to be hoped that the action of the Board will be such as will merit public approval and that there will be no occasion for any of its members to "shirk full responsibility" for the decision of the majority. What the JOURNAL said on the subject was based on the rumors afloat on the streets of Carson last week. It did not say the information was authentic, though it had reason for believing it to be so. The Board is not responsible for the act creating it or the duties assigned it, and if it performs those duties impartially without fear or favor, it will merit and doubtless receive the approval of the people.

THE SUEZ CANAL.

The Suez Canal between the Mediterranean and Red Seas, built by Ferdinand de Lesseps, but controlled by Great Britain, has been considered of incalculable importance to England, not only in a commercial way, but in enabling it to send troops and munitions of war to India and its other Asiatic possessions in times of war in one-fourth the time required to reach those countries by way of the Cape of Good Hope. Now Lord Charles Beresford, who has spent some time in careful inspection of the canal, has caused a marked sensation by reporting that in time of war the canal could easily be rendered useless, and dangerous element if reckoned as one of England's resources. He shows that at one point on the canal, where the banks are rocky, a small quantity of dynamite would blow a mass of rocks into the channel and make it impassable. This, he says, might be done at a critical moment, and in such a way that British troop ships would find themselves caught and unable to get out at either end. For this reason he holds that the Cape route to India must be regarded as the real line of communication in the event of an European war.

THE ITATA GONE.

The Chilean steamer Itata has again sailed from San Diego for Valparaiso. The first time she was loaded with arms and was followed by the United States man-of-war Charleston, captured at Santiago, and brought back to San Diego, where she was anchored since the morning of the fourth of July until she sailed last Sunday. The chace of the vessel cost the United States more than she was worth, and she is now released on bonds, pending the decision of the courts in her case. When the Itata first left San Diego she was loaded with arms and munitions of war for the Insurgents or Congressionalists. Since then the fortunes of war have placed the government of Chili in the hands of those Insurgents, whose leaders are recognized not only by the United States, but by all foreign nations, as the legitimate governing power of the country. This change in the Government of Chili makes the Itata a Government instead of a rebel vessel, and gives rise to international questions which have never been very clearly defined.

Mrs. Frank Leslie has given up the idea of becoming the greatest publisher in the world, and has married W. C. Kingsbury Wilde, a younger brother of Oscar Wilde, the dude, who visited this country some years ago, as the apostle of estheticism. The ceremony was performed in the Church of the Strangers, New York City, by Rev. Dr. Deems. The groom has consented that in all business transactions his wife shall be known as Mrs. Frank Leslie.

Forty years ago there were upward of 80,000 Irishmen in the British army. Twenty years ago the number was reduced to 44,000, while now the number has still further fallen to 27,786. The figures above quoted are given in the annual return which has just been issued.

Young Haymond Cited to Appear.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 6.—To-day Judge Wallace issued an attachment for Edgar B. Haymond to appear before him to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in failing to appear before the Grand Jury as ordered.

On being requested to issue a writ of habeas corpus, Chief Justice Beatty declined to do so on his sole responsibility. He called in the other Supreme Court Justices, and after half an hour's consultation the writ was issued returnable at 2 p. m. Thursday. Five hundred dollars cash bail was required, and immediately deposited. Haymond is acting in the case as a friend of the Grand Jury, having refused to appear before them solely for the purpose of getting the Supreme Court to decide the question whether the witness can question the legality of the present Grand Jury.

Edgar Haymond, a nephew of Creed Haymond, counsel for the Southern Pacific Company, was fined $500 to-day and five days' imprisonment in the County Jail by Judge Wallace for refusing to answer the Grand Jury's summons, on the ground that it was not a legal body. It is understood that Haymond will apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus.

Stanford's yearling Bell Bird went a mile in 2:27 1/4, breaking Freedom's record of 2:29 3/4. The first quarter was made in 37 seconds, the half in 1:13 1/4, and the three-quarters in 1:50 1/4. Stanford's stallion Electricity lowered his record from 2:22 to 2:17 1/4.

Mormon Conference Resolutions.

Special to the Journal.

SALT LAKE, October 6.—At to-day's session of the Mormon Conference, a lengthy set of resolutions was adopted relative to the statement made by a majority of the Utah Commission in their recent report to the Secretary of the Interior. The resolutions set forth that the commission made many untrue statements concerning the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints and the attitude of its members in relation to political affairs, etc. A general conference in these resolutions deny most emphatically the assertion of the commission that the Church dominates its members in political matters and that the Church and State are united, whatever appearance there may have been in the past of the union of the Church and State, the cause was, say the resolutions, that those holding ecclesiastical authority were elected to civil office by popular vote. There is now no foundation for the statement that the Church and State are united in Utah, or that the leaders of the Church dictate to the members in political matters.

The resolutions further declared that the members of the conference do not believe that there has been any polygamous marriages solemnized among the Latter Day Saints during the period named by the commission and denounce the statements which convey an idea that such marriages have been contracted, as false and misleading. That the manifesto of President Woodruff forbidding future plural marriages was adopted at the last October conference in all sincerity and good faith and that we have every reason to believe it has been carried out in letter and spirit.

The conference appeals to the press and people of the country to accept its united declaration and protest, to give it publicity and aid in disseminating the truth, that the falsehood may be refuted and justice done to a people maligned and almost universally misunderstood.

Liberal Russians.

Special to the Journal.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 6.—All classes of citizens here, following the example of the Czar, having resolved to abandon all entertainments during the Winter and contribute the money thus saved to a fund for alleviating distress among famishing people. Most of the public officials announce their intention to devote a certain percentage of their salaries to the same purpose, and workmen have decided to give in a proportion of their humble wages and even children will offer their little savings. A stream of relief is coming in through the wide channels, but the system of distribution, it is said, is very defective. Entire states are being deserted on account of the famine. So great is the distress that the people have been driven to pillaging each other, first setting fire to villages then robbing. By the united charities of the government and people a biscuit a day is allowed every individual in the famine district. The distress is a greater menace to the government than all the efforts of the Nihilists. A famine may cause a revolution where love of liberty has failed. Aid is being sent in by Holland Jews and the Nihilist societies of America.

Death of a Pioneer.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 6.—Captain Thomas E. Fraser, well known here for the part he took in constructing the Lick Observatory, died to-day at Banning, San Bernardino county. Captain Fraser was born in Nova Scotia about 1850. He came here soon after attaining his majority. He became the warm personal friend of James Lick the pioneer philanthropist. Captain Fraser is credited with influencing Mr. Lick in choosing Mount Hamilton as the site of the great observatory. He went to Banning about two years ago and bought a ranch besides considerable town property.

German-Americans.

Special to the Journal.

FT. MADISON, Ia., October 6.—This city was given over to the German-Americans who thronged here in great numbers in spite of the threatening rain. There were probably 20,000 people in town this afternoon. This morning there was a lengthy parade followed by literary exercises. General Franz Sigel delivered the oration of the day.

Methodists in Conference.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, October 6.—To-morrow the ecumenical council of Methodists will begin their sessions in this city. It will have 500 delegates representing all denominations and branches of the Methodist Church in all parts of the world. The council will be confined to discussions. From its nature there can be no legislation.

THE DIPHTHERIA SCARE.

What a Physician Says on the Subject. Some very unkind and at the same time unjust criticisms have been made by certain teachers employed in our public schools as to the action of the Board of Trustees in closing the school during the prevalence of diphtheria in this vicinity. I am informed that these parties have asserted with all the positiveness born of ignorance that the Campbell children do not or did not have diphtheria, and further, charge me with having originated the report with the view presumably of creating a panic, and so making business for the physicians. Now, in justice to myself, I will say that I have not seen the Campbell children, and consequently have expressed no opinion as to the nature of the disease further than in a general way to express my confidence in the diagnosis of the two medical gentlemen, Doctors Patterson and Bergstein, who did see the cases, and after a very careful examination pronounced them diphtheria. The remarks above referred to can only be construed as reflecting either on the honesty or capabilities of these gentlemen, and as both are beyond question no defense is called for. Very respectfully,

DR. A. DAWSON.

EARLY USE OF BELLS.

They Were Rung to Attract the Attention of the Deity.

The use of bells in places devoted to religious purposes is very ancient, dating back many centuries before the Christian era. An exchange which has been investigating the subject, says that in China, long before the time of Christ, bells were hung at the temple gate and the worshipers on entering rung them to attract the attention of the deity he was about to honor.

Bells were common in India at the time of Pliny, and it is believed that they came into Europe in the first or second century. They were used on Christian churches A. D. 400, in Nola, Italy, not so much to give notice of the time of worship as from an idea that their music drove away evil spirits and protect the people of the parish from thunder and lightning. In Chicago and some other cities the use of bells in churches has been prohibited, the authorities claiming that at this day, when clocks and watches are in general use, there is no necessity for ringing bells to call people to worship.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.

Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address,

Terrible Storm at Tahoe.

The Truckee Republican says: Last Thursday, at Lake Tahoe, the most violent wind storm of the season prevailed. The waves ran mountain high and considerable damage was done.

At Steen's camp the waves broke a log boom and the logs were scattered along the shore of the lake for several miles. The steamer Tallac was nearly wrecked as she lay at the wharf at the Tallac house. The force of the waves threw her violently against the wharf and a big hole was made in one side of the vessel.
